Dietz's Diamond Oil.

WE NOW OFFER TO THE PUBLIC in full confidence a new article of KEROSENE OIL,
Which we warrant in every particular to be Superior to any other Oil ever brought to the San Francisco market. It has been thoroughly tested in all the different Coal Oil Burners and found to produce
More Light and Burn Longer
by one-third than any other oil in use.

Among the many advantages of this KEROSENE OIL over other oils is: First that it is perfectly NON EXPLOSIVE and can be used with perfect safety in all kinds of LAMPS. Second It is free from all objectionable and unpleasant smells and burns with a clear white brilliant flame. We cordially invite the public and FAMILIES to give this Oil a trial and once tried we feel confident it will obtain preference over all other Oil for economy as well as its superior burning qualities.

In order to protect ourselves against Counterfeits we have placed our brand on each can and case which will be [illegible]

WEDNESDAY MORNING JUNE 25, 1862

Knights of the Golden Circle in Congress

This subject came up in the Senate recently on the suggestion of Mr Latham of California, who read from the Boston Journal the following article

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be directed to transmit to this body copies of any correspondence which may have taken place between Hon William H Seward, Secretary of the State, and Hon Franklin Pierce ex President of the United States, having reference to a supposed conspiracy against the Government, and all other papers relating to the same.

Before the adoption of the resolution, Senator Chandler said

"A copy of that letter was furnished by me to the State Department, I think as early as November last, and it has been in my hands since the 7th or 8th day of October I should desire to read to the Senate the whole of the letter, of which that is an extract, but it is at my room, and I have not got it with me at this time." The organization was most treasonable and infamous, it was wide spread and it received the attention of the State Department, as I think it should have done The writer of that identical article —Dr Hopkins—was on his way to accept a commission as Surgeon in the Federal army when he was arrested and sent to Fort Lafayette About that time the Knights of the Golden Circle, as I was informed and believe, came to the resolution that they would be more patriotic than anybody else, that they would rush into the Federal army, that they would put men, if possible, into every regiment of the Federal army, and, to my certain knowledge, they did succeed in getting a large number of the worst traitors in the United States into the Federal army, and they are there now. This man, Hopkins, acknowledged the writing of the letter, but undertook to call it a joke. Well, sir, it was a pretty serious joke. I have perhaps more information than it is necessary for me to divulge at this time in reference to the matter."

Senator Howard made remarks to the same purpose, and suggested that the resolution be so extended "as to require the production of "any written or printed document in the possession of the executive department of this "Government relating to the organization and "purposes of a secret combination known "commonly as the Knights of the Golden Circle." The prospect is favorable now for some further developments in reference to this traitorous organization It even appears that ex-President Pierce, although he now repels the imputation of sympathy with the "K. G. C.'s," has been implicated and been compelled to clear his skirts by a correspondence with the State Department That correspondence will be published. But whether ex President Pierce is a member of the Order or not, there is no longer a doubt in regard to the discoveries and disclosures relative to the conspiracy "Dr. Hopkins" has been detected, he confesses that he wrote the letter that has created so much sensation, and other evidences of the character and extent of the conspiracy are in the hands of the Government. Some of the conspirators have been arrested, and others who now believe themselves undiscovered and secure against detection, may suddenly find themselves in trouble More is known of some of them than they may deem possible as they may at length discover The publication of the correspondence called for in the Senate will undoubtedly create a discussion which will place before the public generally all the facts touching the "Knights of the Golden Circle" that have caused so much excitement in the loyal States

This conspiracy is an undeniable fact It accounts for much that is vicious in the tone of certain newspapers and politicians in the free States, and for the singular persistency with which they agitate the slavery question in order to secure a political organization devoted to the institution of slavery and thoroughly animated by the views and feelings of the slavery extremists If the fact were not before us, it would not be easy to believe that any class of men in the loyal States could so trifle with the welfare of the country as to pursue such a purpose, especially at the present time, and those engaged in this malignant course of conduct would not have the resolution to pursue it so steadily if they were not conscious of acting in concert with others like themselves who are scattered all about the country Certain newspapers in the free States are either edited by members of the secret order, or by their friends Its secret agents communicate with them, stimulate their zeal, sharpen their resolution, and infuse new vehemence into their speech

That we have an organized band of these Knights in Oregon and Washington Territory there is no question They were seen in Oregon, at the late election, about the polls, distributing tickets, challenging Union votes and wherever they had managed to secure seats as judges they invariably threw out every Union vote which it was possible for them to do

On Saturday, some Golden Knightism came out prominently, as we learn, at Vancouver There, some sheep headed young men have got up the project of carrying the Clarke county election on the "Union Cheat" They have not learned a vast deal of wisdom in the result of the late election in our State They seem disposed to try the same cheat which was started at Corvallis But the Knight and other secessionists were not duly instructed into their policy at Vancouver There these are open mouthed in sustaining the justice of the rebellion, and their desire to carry the election as "Democrats of the Breckinridge stripe" They don't understand this pretense that Democrats are opposed to this rebellion, and that the rebels must be put down and punished

Mr Garfield, who, on some accounts we regard with kindness smells the scent of the office of Delegate afar off and is endeavoring to set his stakes for it He was sent for to visit Vancouver, which he was not loth to do under the circumstances, and there, on Saturday, made two speeches Supposing that he was a Union man, as that doctrine is now understood, he was invited to deliver before a Union meeting then in session, a speech He did so It was made up of hair-splitting abstractions—the whole tendency of which was to favor disunion. He did not come down to the work, as did General Jackson, and say "the Union shall be preserved"

Mr Garfield delivered also a speech at what was called a Democratic meeting There he took grounds that there was no cause for this rebellion, and by inference that it should be put down and its authors punished And then stood out in bold relief Knights of the Golden Circle and their friends They denounced the speech—left the meeting—disgusted with all the efforts made and making by the smooth-haired young men to cheat the voters of Clarke county, by getting up the "Union Dodge" That the rebels will be made to understand the cheat, is not unlikely—and that they may go into it hereafter, is not the less true—but certain it is, that on the annunciation of Union sentiments in their meeting, there was great fluttering among the wounded Knights—loud growls of displeasure and much suppressed indignation There are Knights of the Golden Circle scattered over the whole Pacific Coast

VOTE ON THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.—The official returns from all the counties of the State show the vote on the capital question to have resulted as follows Salem, 3,112 Portland, 1,780; Eugene City, 1,572, and Corvallis, 940 Salem received but 644 more than one third and 591 less than one-half

From a friend who came up on the Pacific we learn that persistent efforts are made by the people of San Francisco, to create the general impression that Salmon River has proven a humbug, and that those who emigrate for these mines will be grievously disappointed But notwithstanding all this effort, many enquiries are eagerly made by the populace, and perhaps thousands more will yet come from California to try their luck in the new gold fields

JUDGMENT DAY.—The World's Crisis, a Millenial journal, issued semi-occasionally in San Francisco, announces that the world is to endure 6,000 years in its present condition and then will follow a thousand years of glory to the Saints; therefore, according to the generally received chronology, we have 1,8[illegible] years more to go upon, which will give ample time to crush out the present rebellion and two or three more like it, before the happy millenium arrives though we have no idea that it will require one hundredth part of the time to accomplish this noble work

The Nevada Transcript tells of a thoughtful chap in that town who extracted a bit of steel from the corner of a man's eye by presenting a magnet to the organ The thing has often been done before, yet most people would never think of such a simple remedy, and it is worth the labor of this item to remind them of it

The Louisville Journal says that George W Johnson, the late provisional governor of Kentucky, who acted as volunteer aid of Brig General John C Breckinridge in the late battle, said to a distinguished federal officer, after receiving his death wound, that the rebellion had failed,

2,000 BARKS.—Barnum has collected two thousand dogs, of every description, in his museum at New York and has them now on exhibition What an enormous amount of sausage meat will be in that market shortly!

A San Francisco publisher is getting up an engraved panorama of San Francisco Bay city and its surroundings, the picture to be about seventy feet long

AN INTERVIEW WITH JAMES BUCHANAN.—Col Forney writes from Washington to the Philadelphia Press

"Not long ago two ladies called at Wheatland, the state retreat of the man who assisted treason to arm itself in the very sanctuaries of freedom, and while there they were thrown into conversation with the venerable ex President Of course, the war was soon introduced In the course of conversation the battle of Fort Donelson was alluded to, when he said 'Ladies you must not suppose that this victory will end the war there will be much severe fighting yet, and should our Northern soldiers attempt to go South as the warm season approaches they will be swept off like rotten sheep' Besides, ladies, you know that the Southern people have long anticipated this struggle, and have been prepared for it; they can never be conquered' Miss — replied 'Yes, Mr Buchanan, we know it and so does the country that for the last four years at least, the Southern people have been permitted to do as they pleased with the powers that controlled the Government, and have been allowed to have their own way in every thing but notwithstanding all that it is our opinion that they will be conquered and made to return to the support of the old Constitution'

I record this little incident not so much to prove that the ex President is the same man that placed the weapons in the hands of the bad men which they have used to overthrow the Union nor to present another evidence of his bitter hostility to the cause of his country, but to remind my readers that the rebellion against this Government was long and carefully prepared for, and that it has cost the people thousands of precious lives and hundreds of millions of dollars Every victory over the traitors makes this fact more clear

A new locomotive invented by a Russian named Baronowski, has been tried with success at St Petersburg The motive power was condensed air, and on the trial trip made with a carriage filled with passengers, a speed of twenty four English miles an hour was obtained The inventor claims that it can be made to go much faster

A western editor thus compliments a contemporary "What a piece of work is Bartlett how feeble in reason, in form and moving how like a snake how stupid in faculties in action how like a spaniel, in comprehensiveness how like a hog!"

CITY.

MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this city.

DAILY OREGONIAN [illegible] Store and at [illegible]

ARRESTED — A man by the name of Schn[illegible] was arrested yesterday afternoon [illegible] of Mr Ladd of Walla Walla, who [illegible] alleges that Schneider ran away from Walla Walla leaving a large amount of debts [illegible], and the arrest was made for the purpose of compelling him to shell out money he was known to possess, and which rightfully belong to him. Schneider [illegible]ed up the sum of $2400 into the hands of Deputy Sheriff Arnold and the case will be further investigated to day.

PATRIOTIC. —The firemen it seems are determined to celebrate the coming Fourth of July, anyhow. They generally lead off in [illegible] of this kind. At a meeting of Co[illegible] No [illegible]'s last night, a committee was appointed to consult with committees of the other companies for the purpose of having a meeting called at the Council Room on Thursday evening next at eight o'clock, to make the arrangements about celebrating that day. All honor to [illegible] boys.

RECORDER'S COURT — Adam [illegible] charged with stealing chickens, was tried, convicted and fined $10 and costs of suit. Paid and [illegible] discharged.

PANORAMA. —This magnificent painting was exhibited to a fair audience last night at the Theater and was frequently applauded as the many beautiful scenes passed by. By request Mr Perry will exhibit this Panorama tomorrow afternoon, at [illegible] o'clock, for the benefit of ladies and children who cannot visit the show after night. The price of admission for the afternoon exhibition, will also be reduced to 50 cents; for children, 25 cents. The Panorama will be again on exhibition in the evening, commencing at 8 o'clock.

COMMISSION BUSINESS. —By referring to advertisement it will be seen that Messrs. Mont[illegible] & Snyder have opened an auction and commission house at Walla Walla, W. T. We recommend the firm to the public. Goods of any kind entrusted to their care will be promptly attended to. They are both enterprising and thorough business men.

The water of the Willamette is still falling, and it is hoped that by the last of this week Front Street will be sufficiently clear for the resumption of business.

Rain has fallen copiously for the last 30 [illegible], and the atmosphere is quite damp and [illegible]

Thanks to Wells, Fargo & Co. for files of papers per steamer Pacific.

SIDNEY JOHNSTON WAS RECOGNIZED. — Sidney Johnston's body, which was [illegible] till Monday evening, was first recognized by Brigadier-General Nelson, who had known him when the one was an honored [illegible] in the old army and the other was a [illegible] of the navy. Prisoners had been [illegible] of his death, and describing him as [illegible] in a velvet suit, and when such a [illegible] was found, inquiries were naturally made as to who knew Johnston. General [illegible] was sent for. He at once declared it to be the dead Commander in Chief, and had [illegible] removed to his own tent. General [illegible] was subsequently sent for and he recognized the features. Captain Chan[illegible] of the regular army did the same, and [illegible]ly enough, there was a wagonmaster who had been one of Johnston's team[illegible] in the famous Utah expedition, who [illegible] remembered the appearance of the [illegible] he had followed on that disastrous march over the Rocky Mountains.

MISSOURI UNIONIST. — A newspaper correspondent with Gen. Curtis' army at [illegible] Mo., gives the following account of a [illegible] who deserves to be called an unconditional Unionist.

[illegible] Carroll county, a man was tried for [illegible] avowing Union sentiments. He defied [illegible] tormentors, and said he would stick to the [illegible] as long as there was a piece left. If [illegible] told that the Union was broken so his [illegible] piece could not be found. "Then [illegible], "I will hang to the stub, and when [illegible] stub is gone I will hang to the hole the [illegible] came out of." He was released.

[illegible]ing the Thames on fire is a scheme [illegible]ed by one Mr. Mcintosh in view of a [illegible] foreign invasion. He proposes to [illegible] a sheet of some combustible hydrocarbonaceous liquid over the water that [illegible] adverse fleet, to ignite this combustible [illegible]id, and thus to envelope the enemy in [illegible].

Clark County Union Convention

Pursuant to notice the several precincts of Clark County, W. T., were represented in convention at the Metropolis Hall in Vancouver on Saturday, June 21st, 1862, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various offices to be filled at the ensuing election. The Convention being organized by electing H. M. Knighton to the Chair and R. T. Lockwood Secretary. The following named gentlemen were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the Convention, viz: S. W. Brall, Joseph Kelley, C. C. Stiles, M. R. Hathaway, M. Mabry, S. W. Fisher, and F. M. [illegible]. Whereupon said committee presented the following which were adopted.

Resolved, By this Union Convention of Delegates from the several precincts of Clark County, that all sectional divisions can be better healed in the Union than out of it, and that all pretexts for a dissolution of the Union are unsound and unwarrantable.

Resolved, That the alacrity with which the masses of the people rush to the rescue of the Union declares them worthy of their lineage and birthright, and makes us (the most distant limb of the Union) forever their debtor.

Resolved, That the Union has become so incorporated with our institutions, our institutions with the Union, that the dissolution of the one would seriously endanger the permanence of the other.

Resolved, That Clark County, true to her allegiance and true to the Government which protects her, will not be found wanting in devotion to the Union or fidelity to the laws and constitution, and we hereby pledge to the General Government a hearty indorsement of all measures which are or may be necessary to crush the rebellion and establish the supremacy of the laws of our common country in all parts of the same.

Whereupon the Convention proceeded to the nomination of candidates, which resulted as follows: Representatives—C. C. Stiles, Wm Bank, and R. T. Lockwood; Probate Judge—W. Abbott; County Commissioner—L. Douthit; School Superintendent—J. O. Raynor; Treasurer—J. D. Biles; Sheriff—Thos Turnbull; Assessor—M. R. Hathaway; Auditor—G. T. McConnell; Coroner—Michael Shea.

On motion, a committee of three—J. D. Biles, H. M. Knighton, J. T. Smith—were elected to confer with committees or conventions in other counties in the district, relative to the nomination of a Joint Councilman, and were requested to recommend the nomination of Hiram Cochran as the first choice of the convention for said office. The following resolution was then adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention, as Union men, most respectfully tender to Hon. Selucius Garfield our thanks for the able and eloquent manner in which he addressed the citizens of Clark County at this time on the political and national affairs of our country.

The following gentlemen were then elected a Union County Committee for the ensuing year: J. Durgan, L. Douthit, J. H. Timmon, J. J. Austin, D. R. Eales, T. M. Coffee, and J. W. Fletcher.

The Portland Oregonian and Times being requested to publish the foregoing proceedings, the Convention adjourned.

Lieut. Worden, of the Monitor, is getting well so rapidly that he is hopeful of his ability to command the new Ironsides.

☞ The Medical and Surgical Institute OF DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it as well as its proprietor far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department from [illegible] and they occupy with others an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example [illegible] among the philosophical [illegible] in Europe, and Dr Czapkay has fully equaled him in this country. As a proof of which the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary [illegible] [illegible] this [illegible] of [illegible] graduate of the University of Pesth and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army for more extended labors. Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases in which he has no superior [illegible] expert that he is now regarded as the [illegible] in this branch of his profession throughout the United States and his portrait [illegible] is published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's office is at the Medical and Surgical Institute on Sacramento street [illegible] nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the several certificates of remarkable cures in another column of this paper. Persons wishing to see him or correspond [illegible], please enclose $10 in their letters and they will receive [illegible] attention in their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. June 25daw1y

☞ Coughs. —The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stage of the disease, recourse should at once be had to Brown's Bronchial Troches, or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

The Indians, then, had discovered Kit's cache I pulled up my horses and turned round with the desperate determination of rejoining them at any hazard, when all at once I remembered, in impotent despair, that with the exception of my bowie knife I was unarmed. On parting, Kit had taken possession of my rifle and revolver, remarking that while they might be of use to him, I should ride lighter without them. All a pretext I saw it now, when too late The noble minded fellow had guessed that if I heard him engaged with the Indians I should return, and had thus taken measures to effectually prevent me. Utterly distraught on making this discovery, I remember little more of my ride to Van Noy Ferry Though I rode like a mad man, I must yet have acted with the soundest discretion. My horse was afterwards found dead about two miles up Applegate creek by which the trail ran on leaving Slate creek At that point I must have mounted the second horse and swam the creek, instead of following it up to Rogue river Then I crossed the country in a northeasterly direction, and thus, by cutting off an angle, considerably shortened the distance. But of all this, I only distinctly remember pricking along my failing horse with my bowie knife, as the light of the ferry came into view, till he also gave in and fell, throwing me over his head and inflicting on me no trifling injuries, and that wet, bruised and bleeding, but still with the one fixed, irrevocable idea pervading my weakened senses, that Kit was in deadly peril for my sake, and that he must be saved, I burst into the midst of the ferry-men as they sat round their fire in their log hut

"Kit Butler, from Boonsville!" shouted one of the rough backwoodsmen, the captain of the ferry, in reply to my appeal for help "By thunder! he's jest my fust cousin how kim yew to quit, mister, when he was in such a tarnation fix, eh?"

"Talking won't get him out of it, man," I replied impatiently, "either come along with me at once to help him, or give me a rifle and fresh horses and let me do what I can myself."

"We'll go, don't you fear, mister," he said more graciously; "yon darned red skins aint goin' to wipe out the smartest mountain boy in all Oregon. and no 'muss' round! Hy'ar, yew—Pete! Dave! Zack! lay hold of your shootin'-irons. boys, and git the animals out of the corral."

"Ay, ay, Cap!" was the ready response and with astonishing quickness we were all armed and mounted on sturdy mustangs, riding hard to the rescue.

As we splashed through Applegate creek ford, we heard a shot to the front, followed shortly by another.

"Hurrah, boys," shouted our leader; "thar goes old Kit! He ain't wiped out jest yet, nohow. Guess it'll take a caution o' red skins to whip him. He'll make 'em see snakes—and black ones at that."

In a few minutes more we debouched on to the north bank of Slate creek, but not an Indian was visible. The noise of our approach had effectually scared them; they had not dared to stand the brunt of a charge of half a dozen white men. As we swept up the creek, dear old Kit stepped out of his cover, his hands and face black with powder, and his forehead bleeding, but only from the splinter of a bad cap.

"You're walkin, boy," he said, as we shook hands; "'twar gettin' hot though I peppered one or two of the varmints. They got on my trail right smart when yew quit, but they ain't got me this time, I reckon"

Prudence forbade our small party from attempting the mountain passes that night to learn the fate of our comrades, but early the next morning we reached Deer creek.

As we had anticipated we found the two Germans dead in the creek, where the fatal ambush had been laid for them Of the artist we could find no traces, but on our return to the ferry we found him there. Though unhurt, his plight was ludicrously doleful The Indians had discovered him in the cedar, and it would have fared ill with him but that the sketch of the young Indian was found on his person, drawn so accurately that all his captors recognized it. Believing from this circumstance that he was a great "medicine" man, whom it would be dangerous to injure, they stripped and released him

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION
—AND—
Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order should make a TIGHT LOCK STITCH, alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed

It should be able to use cotton, thread or silk, directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity and without changing the tension It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle, curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather, and should be always ready to work

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk above or below to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel feed, no others are in constant contact with the work

It should not be liable to get out of order, neither should it require a screw driver or wrench to set the needle

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress

It should not form a ridge on the under side, nor ravel

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self Abuse Nervous Debility Syphilis in all its stages Strictures Gleet Gravel Diabetes diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles Diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers Dropsy Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling Loss of Memory Loss of Power, General Weakness Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness Dyspepsia, Liver Disease Eruptions upon the Face Pains in the Back and Head Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case recovery is certain and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure The medicines are pleasant without odor entirely vegetable causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases and should be a terror to the human family A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution filling the system with mercury which with the disease hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marries the disease is entailed upon the children who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter ulcers eruptions and other affections of the skin eyes, throat and lungs entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave It destroys the nervous system rapidly wastes away the energies of life causes mental derangement prevents the proper development of the system disqualifies for marriage society business and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust vigorous health

Irregularities and all diseases of females treated on a plan peculiar to me established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures—Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State Oregon and Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter

All business correspondence strictly confidential Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office, San Francisco

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease who having recovered their former health and impelled by gratitude make known their cases and remedial agent and these statements are authenticated by a Notary Public The [illegible] commend their publicity and [illegible] their [illegible] to the attention of all [illegible]

Certificate—The undersigned [illegible] those who may be similarly [illegible] where a permanent relief [illegible] sufferings [illegible] sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the [illegible] [illegible] his [illegible] [illegible] the body and [illegible] unable [illegible] of life [illegible] [illegible] trifling [illegible] but [illegible] and in several instances months of their treatment [illegible] [illegible] that instead of relief [illegible] symptoms [illegible] [illegible] my [illegible] being principally [illegible] would be of little consequence [illegible] my health [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] Czapkay [illegible] [illegible] immediately relieved [illegible] pain [illegible] Encouraged by the [illegible] to place myself immediately under his care and by strict attention to all his directions and [illegible] and my [illegible] the weakness of my limbs the [illegible] body on the slightest [illegible] and evil forebodings the self distrust and want of confidence in [illegible] the inability to study and want of resolution, the frightful exciting and at times pleasurable dreams at night followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact, in two months after having visited the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Cz., and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that one under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

B. F. FILLMORE

State of California, County of San Francisco.
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April A. D. 1856 Signed
[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 8d, 1856.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY San Francisco—Sir I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall want any more as I feel very well except that I have not entirely got my strength yet but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks you may recollect, since I called at your institute with my constitution, as I thought, broken entirely and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do as much to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from these symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin and the ulcers from my throat and the entire stoppage of those emissions, which you said were principally the cause of my sickness I can hardly tell you which is the greatest my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength I feel as well as any man can feel.

Inclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. I remain gratefully yours, THOMAS HAYNES.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of [illegible] which owing to my inability to meet the expenditure [illegible] upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] the misery of my life and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible] While in this state and having previous to my [illegible] tasted the sweets of life I once more was induced to seeking aid of a physician and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay I told him of my [illegible] and of my inability to reward him for his services; [illegible] of which however he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I [illegible] due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed
